Ashfield Post 16 (Level 3) Curriculum Policy

Level 3 students in Ashfield Post 16 must study 3 or 4 level 3 courses in year 12. Each course will be allocated 9 hours tuition time per fortnight. In year 13 most students will study 3 level 3 courses where again, each course will be allocated 9 hours of tuition time per fortnight.

Students enrolled on an A-level course must sit two internal progression assessment points in Year 12. To progress onto the 2nd year of the A-level course students must pass each qualification with a grade D at the 2nd progression assessment point. Only in extreme situations will an exception be made to this rule.

In addition to the above any level 3 student who has not passed Maths or English (Language or Literature) with a grade 4 or better must re-sit that qualification. Each of those subjects will be allocated 2 hours of tuition per week.

All students will receive a 20 minute tutorial session at the start of 3 days per week and a 1:1 coaching session per academic term.
