

An outstanding set of results for Barnhill students

Year 11 students at Barnhill Community High School have been celebrating after receiving their GCSE grades. Despite the more challenging examinations, results in English and Mathematics have exceeded previous outcomes and are the best the school have ever seen. There are some outstanding achievements across a range of subjects.

Head of School, Mark Mayne said:

‘This is all about the students receiving the grades that they deserve. I am delighted that so many will be progressing to their chosen courses in our sixth form. It is also testament to the hard work and determination of Barnhill’s exceptional staff and the support of parents and carers.

The school’s focus on raising attainment through personalised interventions and support for every single individual has had a huge impact and we feel exceptionally proud of our students.’

Executive Head Teacher, Tracey Hemming said:

‘We have seen a significant improvement in outcomes for a second year running at Barnhill. This is fantastic news for our Trust, where all three schools are now on rapid upward trajectories for pupils and students.’
