entrepreneurs: The girls from Coloma Convent

Comments (0)

A TEAM of Croydon students have made it to the final of Dragons' Den's Peter Jones' enterprise competition for young entrepreneurs.

Ten Coloma Convent Girls' School pupils set up Fusion Jewellery, a handmade accessories company, for the Tycoon in Schools initiative set up by the Peter Jones Foundation.

The group will visit Buckingham Palace, in March, alongside eight other student companies to find out the winner from a judging panel chaired by Mr Jones.

The winning team will receive £1,000 towards their business venture.

Coloma student Chinemelum Anyamene said: "We learnt to co-operate with each other and how to communicate and form strong bonds with customers so we could persuade them to buy our products."

Last year, the girls made a profit of more than 110 per cent selling their products at Christmas fairs and Coloma Christmas Market.

If you owe less than $625,000 on your home, use Obama's Refi Program. The program is totally free and doesn't add any cost to your refi. The bad news is that it expires in 2015. You'll be shocked when you see how much you can save.
