

Jubilation and relief as pupils collect results

Many schools report best ever grades

By James Booker

james.booker@croydonadvertiser.co.uk

SIXTH formers in Croydon celebrated the end of their schooling life, with many schools reporting best ever A-level results.

Coloma Convent Girls' School in Shirley scored a full 100 pass rate, with 32 per cent of these grades being A* or A. Caroline Wroblewska, Isabel Oliver, Sarah Limb and Elizabeth Cole all got two or more A* grades.

Head teacher Maureen Martin said: "I congratulate all the girls on their excellent results, which are a credit to their hard work and determination, as well as the support they receive from their family and friends. We are absolutely delighted for our girls and wish them every blessing."

Coulsdon College is celebrating its third year with a 99 per cent

TOP OF THE CLASS: Two Coloma Convent students compare results

Mark Fisher, head teacher of Cambridge Tutors College in