

Coloma Convent Girls' School wins award for exceptional 2016 results

Spring Term 2017

Coloma Convent Girls' School has been nationally recognised for its exceptional 2016 performance by the Schools, Students and Teachers network (SSAT). Educational Outcomes data analysis from SSAT has shown that the school is in the top 10% of non-selective schools nationally for attainment and progress.

The school's SSAT Educational Outcomes awards will be presented at a regional celebration event held to draw attention to the work of high-achieving, improving and innovating schools and teachers.

Sue Williamson, Chief Executive of SSAT said:

"It's my great pleasure to commend Coloma Convent Girls' School on their excellent 2016 performance, and to have the opportunity to highlight and share their great work at an SSAT Educational Outcomes celebration event. We know how hard teachers work to ensure the success of every child. SSA T's Educational Outcomes award recognises the professionalism, commitment and hard work of the leaders, teachers and students at Coloma Convent Girls' School. A big thank you and well done to the pupils, staff and governors."
