

Alison Blunt

Alison Blunt is Professor of Geography at Queen Mary, University of London, and co-director of the Centre for Studies of Home, a partnership between QMUL and the Geffrye Museum of the Home. She has previously served as Head of the School of Geography at QMUL and as Council Member and Trustee at the Royal Geographical Society (with Institute of British Geographers).