

Mary graduated from St. Andrews with a degree in Biochemistry and started her working life in Essex with Proctor and Gamble. She then became a teacher, spending 35 years teaching Science and Maths in both state and independent schools. She retired from Bancroft's, a Drapers School, in 2016 after 9 years as Headteacher. She then became a Draper. Mary lives on the South Coast with her husband and dog; she is a governor two other schools and a Christ's Hospital charity.