PSHE at Eastbury Community School

The PSHE department is an expanding and successful department consisting of four dedicated teachers who deliver PSHE across key stage 3-5 with close links to our primary phase. It is a popular subject with pupils, and all members of the school community including staff, senior leaders, parents and carers and Governors recognise its role and importance in the curriculum.

At Eastbury Community School we want our pupils to be safe, healthy and happy. The aim of our PSHE programme is to provide pupils with the knowledge, understanding, skills and attributes to make informed choices about their well-being, and prepare them for life in Modern Britain.

The PSHE curriculum has been carefully mapped to reflect the new statutory guidance for Health, Relationships and Relationships and Sex education from the DFE and follows the core themes of Healthy Lifestyles, Relationships, and Living in the Wider World from The PSHE Association. PSHE is planned as a spiral curriculum enabling pupils to explore these themes at an age appropriate level in all year groups.

At Key Stage 3 all pupils receive one PSHE lesson a week and from 2020 we will be increasing our Key Stage 4 provision to see all Year 11 also receive a weekly lesson. In Year 10 students receive the equivalent of one lesson a fortnight. PSHE at KS5 is developing through an established programme of Enhancement and Enrichment. The Eastbury Community School PSHE curriculum has been mapped from Year 1 to Y11 providing opportunities for us to work closely with our colleagues in the primary phase and support our Eastbury families as their children move from primary to secondary.

The department is enthusiastic about providing opportunities for pupils both in and out of the classroom. We have a very well-established and active School Council and Students Equalities group as well as a range of additional student’s leadership groups including Prefects and Peer Mediators. We aspire to build on these opportunities for students to give our students a voice and be active citizens able to make a positive contribution to their communities.
The successful candidate will demonstrate a commitment to engaging students in active teaching and learning opportunities relevant to their lives, developing and using up to date and balanced resources which inspire children and young people to make informed choices. PSHE is recognised as an important part of the schools safeguarding provision and as such a key focus for us is ensuring the curriculum is accessible and effective for students of all abilities and backgrounds.

In our last Ofsted inspection the school received an outstanding for Personal Development and Well-being. Our Student Voice activities and School Council is recognised by Leading Edge as exemplary. For two years running our Students Equalities group has been awarded funding from Team London to carry out students led social action projects. We hold the Healthy Schools London Gold award and are currently engaging in the Rights Respecting Schools Award.
