

Transparency

The trust must be transparent with its governance arrangements.

Publishing information about governance structures.

In the interests of transparency, an academy trust must publish on its website up to date details of its governance arrangements in a readily accessible format. This must include:

The structure and remit of the members, board of trustees, its committees and local governing bodies and the full names of the chair of each (where applicable).

For each member who has served at any point over the past 12 months, their full names, date of appointment, date they stepped down (where applicable) and relevant business and pecuniary interests including governance roles in other educational institutions.

For each trustee and local governor who has served at any point over the past 12 months, their full names, date of appointment, term of office, date they stepped down (where applicable), who appointed them (in accordance with the trust's articles and relevant business and pecuniary interests including governance roles in other educational institutions).

For each trustee, their attendance records at board and committee meetings over the last academic year.

For each governor, their attendance records at local governing body meetings over the last academic year.
