

At Fullwood Art and Design has a significant and valuable role to play in the overall ethos of this school. Art is an ongoing process through which all children are given opportunities to develop specific skills, knowledge and understanding to enable them to work in variety of media, style and form. Art is not taught in isolation, although it retains its creative base and its skills and techniques, it is taught within the context of the term's learning journey.

At Fullwood, we aim to

- Have entitlement to a broad and balanced, enriching curriculum.
- Enjoy an active involvement in art, craft and design.
- Are engaged, inspired and challenged at all levels and abilities.
- Have the confidence as well as the skills and experience necessary to communicate their ideas through their artwork.
- Have the opportunities to experience a broad and balanced range of art activities and show progression within these experiences.
- Have opportunities to learn about art from different times and cultures, including how art contributes to the creativity and wealth of our nation.
- Know about great artists and their works.
- Develop the ability to analyse and make informed critical judgements about their work and the work of other artists, crafts people and designers using appropriate language.

- All pupils will be given equal access to the experience of the art regardless of the gender, race or disability.
