AUSTRALIAN CRUNCH

Ingredients:
- 140g golden caster sugar (it's way better than standard caster sugar)
- 85g desiccated coconut
- 75g cornflakes (crushed up)
- 1 heaped tbsp. good cocoa powder (like Green & Black's)
- 140g self-rising flour
- 250g of Cadbury's chocolate

Method:
1. Melt the Stork in the microwave
2. Mix all the dry ingredients in a bowl
3. Pour in the Stork and mix until well combined
4. Pour into a Swiss roll tin (I use disposable tray bake trays from Asda)
5. Squash it down with the back of a spoon - make sure you push it into all the corners!
6. Bake at 180c/gas 4 for 35 minutes.
7. Allow to cool.

When cool, melt the chocolate over a bain-marie (or gently in the microwave if you must...) and pour over the Crunch. Level off with a spatula and pop in the fridge to set.

MINT CUSTARD

300 mls Milk
20 grams Cornflour
2 tbsps. Caster Sugar
Peppermint Extract
Green Food Colouring

1. Measure 300mls milk into a jug
2. In a small bowl mix together the sugar and cornflour and several tablespoons of the milk to make a smooth paste.
3. Place the milk in a pan and add the cornflour and sugar paste. Stir well to combine and slowly bring to the boil stirring all the time.
4. As the mixture thickens add the peppermint extract to taste and add the food colouring.

The Canteen With A Difference

When we had lunch today it was weird because there were only 4 students including me. I think there were a reasonable amount of staff in the school. The reason I think this is because there are normally loads of people in the canteen, there is lots of chatter, and some shoving. But this time there were not many people in the canteen, there were not much chatter, and no barging.

There were only 4 tables but there are usually 6/7 tables. There were only 2/3 canteen chefs/staff. The line was not long, but normally the canteen line reaches outside. There were only 1/2 stalls and the pasta king was not open but usually the pasta king is open and all of the other stalls.

Breaking news—today (6th April) - some glass in the canteen shattered for no apparent reason. “It was like something out of film” said Jackie, catering staff.
