

A Level Drama and Theatre Studies

“Develop your confidence, ignite your passion, and learn through the medium of Performing Arts”

Entry Criteria:

- 5 A* - C or equivalent including:
- At least a “3” Maths
- At least a “4” in English Language

What topics will you be studying?

- Theatre Workshop
- Text in Theatre
- Text in Action
- Text in Performance

What do students studying this qualification go on to do?

- Drama and Theatre studies are not just for those looking for a career in acting but for those searching to become a more empathetic communicator.
- This subject will not only give you the skills to perform onstage or put the theatre industry into context, but it gives you the opportunity to develop skills that will make you a better orator, team member, public speaker, listener and creative thinker.

