

A Level Psychology

“For those with an interest in the human mind and behaviour”

Entry Criteria:

- 5 A* - C or equivalent including:
- At least a “3” Maths
- At least a “5” in English Language
- At least a “C” in GCSE Science

What topics will you be studying?

- Psychological Approaches
- Cognitive Psychology (Memory)
- Social Psychology (Conformity and Obedience)
- Research Methods and Experimental Design
- Developmental Psychology (Child Attachments)
- Biological Psychology (Effects of Stress)
- Abnormal Psychology (Abnormal behavior and psychological illness)

What do students studying this qualification go on to do?

- Clinical / Educational / Counselling / Forensic / Sports or Occupational Psychologists
- Marketing / Advertising
- Health Professionals
- Human Resources or Research Professions

