

A Level Sociology

The study of different groups within society

Are you interested in the study of society? Do you read up on world events in newspapers? Do you often try to find answers for the bigger questions in society such as are women discriminated against? Why do different social groups have different experiences of society? Is the internet a force for good or is it “dumbing” us down and trivialising us? Does the mass media offer us a realistic world view or is it biased? Are we ruled over by a wealthy elite or do we have free will?
