

ALUMNI – news of former students

This week we will find out what the Bolshaw family have been doing since all three siblings left Kenilworth School.

Emma, the youngest, finished her A levels a year ago and has spent the last year broadening her horizons. Emma has just left Australia where she has spent her time travelling and also working as a nanny for a family in Adelaide. She has now moved on to Bali and will visit the Philippines and Malaysia before returning to Australia for Christmas.

Matt was a prefect and then Deputy Head Boy whilst he was at Leyes Lane. He studied A levels and following his love for Geography he studied it at Worcester University and is now a Graduate Transport Planner for Peter Brett Associates in London.

After graduating Katie, the eldest, continued working at the Holiday Inn, Kenilworth as Assistant Manager. She has now moved to Ashfield Meetings & Events as a Project Executive, arranging events all around the world predominantly for the Pharmaceutical Industry.
