

Year 10 Fine Art

Term	Topics	Timescale	Assessment Objective	Assessment points (approximate, dependent on 2 or 3 lessons a week)	How to prepare
Autumn	Project 1: Topics given by class teacher. Can include Natural Form, Identity, Layers or Perspective.	Weeks 1-7	AO1 & AO3	Week 3 & 6	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Drawing or sketching at home to develop practical skills.
		Weeks 8-15	AO2 & AO4	Week 9 & 12	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Drawing or sketching at home to develop practical skills.
Spring	Skills Workshops: Includes observation drawing, how to evaluate art, investigations into texture, colour, line, tone, shape, space.	Weeks 15 - 21	AO1, AO2 & AO3	Week 15 & 18	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Drawing or sketching at home to develop practical skills.
	Skills Workshops continue	Weeks 22 - 28	AO1, AO2 & AO3	Week 23 & 26	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Drawing or sketching at home to develop practical skills.
Summer	Final Major Coursework starts - students select their own theme and brief	Weeks 29 - 39	AO1, AO2 & AO3	Week 31, 34 and 37	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Drawing or sketching at home to develop practical skills.

AO1	Develop ideas inspired by artists/designers/artistic theory
AO2	Create new work through imaginative experimentation and refining of techniques
AO3	Record ideas as work develops, reflecting critically on progress
AO4	Develop and present a final piece based on learnt techniques and understanding across the project