

Year 10 Graphics

Term	Topics	Timescale	Assessment Objective	Assessment points (approximate, dependent on 2 or 3 lessons a week)	How to prepare
Autumn	The Four Pillars of Graphics: Photography, Typography, Colour and Layout/Balance	Weeks 1-7	AO1 & AO3	Week 3 & 6	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work.
		Weeks 8-15	AO1 & AO2	Week 9 & 12	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Try to improve work as it progresses
Spring	The Four Pillars of Graphics: Photography, Typography, Colour and Layout/Balance	Weeks 15 - 21	AO2 & AO4	Week 15 & 18	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Try to improve work as it progresses. Look at youtube for photoshop tutorials to improve artistic practice
	Practical skills workshops: Mini Briefs set	Weeks 22 - 28	AO2 & AO4	Week 23 & 26	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Try to improve work as it progresses. Look at youtube for photoshop tutorials to improve artistic practice
Summer	Final Major Coursework starts - students select their own theme and brief	Weeks 29 - 39	AO1, AO2 & AO3	Week 31, 34 and 37	Complete all classwork and homework. Coursework is marked as it progresses; read and respond to all feedback. Use subject specific language to annotate work. Try to improve work as it progresses. Look at youtube for photoshop tutorials to improve artistic practice. Ensure all annotation links to the brief set.

AO1	Develop ideas inspired by artists/designers/artistic theory
AO2	Create new work through imaginative experimentation and refining of techniques
AO3	Record ideas as work develops, reflecting critically on progress
AO4	Develop and present a final piece based on learnt techniques and understanding across the project