PARENTS/CARERS

As parents/carers, we will ensure that our child:

- attends school punctually at all required times and is absent only for illness or circumstances agreed with the school
- has any absence explained through parental contact with school as soon as possible
- complies with the school uniform requirements, including en route to and from school
- arrives at school with the necessary books and equipment, including P.E. kit

We will:

- support the school and its policies
- monitor/educate our child in the safe use of social media
- notify the school of any change of circumstance which might affect our son/daughter's learning or wellbeing in school and outside
- check and sign our son/daughter's planner regularly and provide a suitable environment and support for completing homework.
- use the school's website and software to keep track of our son/daughter's academic progress and positive/negative behaviour points and homework set online.
- attend parents' meetings
- notify the school of any change of details so that we may be contacted should it be necessary
- ensure our son/daughter attends all end of year exams punctually
