Introduction

The world of work that each of our students will enter is vastly different from the one we encountered when we left school!

Careers guidance has become increasingly important with such large changes to both local and national labour markets, along with an ever-changing economic and political position within the UK and internationally.

There is now an increasing breadth and depth of content at both GCSE and A-Level. This, paired with the introduction of new qualifications and education routes post-16, means that quality careers guidance is vital to ensure that students choose suitable routes to achieve their aspirations.

Our students are faced with a myriad of choices, changes, challenges and a wealth of opportunities. It is our job as a school to educate, inform, advise and guide them in order that they leave us equipped and ready.

At Keswick School, careers guidance begins in Year 7 and continues every year until students leave school at the end of Year 11 (Key Stage 4) or Year 13 (Key Stage 5), and particularly through the crucial points of options during Years 9, 11 and in the 6th Form. We have a statutory duty to provide independent and impartial advice to students, including the opportunities available at other educational establishments. As a school, we make sure that students and parents are aware of the importance of their decisions and how they can affect future career choices.

This programme is based on the DfE document Careers Guidance and Inspiration in Schools dated March 2015. The main outcome of this plan is to achieve the eight recommendations of the Gatsby report Good Career Guidance dated 2014 (see next page).

Gatsby Benchmarks

Good career guidance is the key to social mobility: it is about showing young people – whatever their social and family background – the options open to them and helping them make the right choices to set them on the path to rewarding future careers.

Good Career Guidance: Reaching the Gatsby Benchmarks (A Handbook for Secondary Schools, Gatsby Charitable Foundation, 2018)

In 2014, Lord Sainsbury's Gatsby Charitable Foundation published a report by Professor Sir John Holman, Advisor in Education at the Gatsby Charitable Foundation, titled Good Career Guidance.

The report identified 8 benchmarks that are the core dimensions of good careers and enterprise provision in schools:

1. A stable careers programme
2. Learning from career and labour market information
3. Addressing the needs of each pupil
4. Linking curriculum learning to careers
5. Encounters with employers and employees
6. Experiences of workplaces
7. Encounters with further and higher education
8. Personal guidance

The Gatsby benchmarks have now been put into the heart of the government's new careers strategy published in December 2017, with the expectation that all schools will begin working towards them, meeting them in full by the end of 2020.

Keswick School is fully committed to fulfilling this obligation and regularly evaluate our progress using the Careers and Enterprise Company's Compass Tool.

- Evaluation of the School Career Plan is an on-going and cyclical process. Aspects of the CEIAG work within school are reviewed more regularly to inform future planning. The school evaluates its CEIAG processes against the Gatsby Benchmarks.
- Evaluation also includes the views of employers, training providers, governors, pupils and parents.
- The CEIAG provision is reviewed annually with the Senior Leadership Team.
- Keswick School is currently working towards a gold standard in the nationally recognized Inspiring IAG award
- Each term Keswick School reviews their careers provision using the Careers and Enterprise Company's Compass Tool to assess and evaluate current practices and procedures in close alignment with the Gatsby benchmarks.
