

THE KING ALFRED SCHOOL ACADEMIC LECTURE SERIES AUTUMN 2018

Interdisciplinary enrichment talks from leading thinkers

■ TUES 18 SEPT, 11:25-12:15

RICK FINDLER, PHOTOJOURNALIST

“Picturing War: Photojournalism and Global Conflict”

Award winning photojournalist Rick Findler will discuss his work and interest in conflict photography. His work has featured in The Guardian and Independent among others.

■ TUES 2 OCT, 11:25-12:15

THE FORGIVENESS PROJECT (TBC)

“Finding Ways to Forgive in Difficult Situations, A Human Dialogue”

The Forgiveness Project shares stories of forgiveness in order to build hope, empathy and understanding. Learn from real life experiences of forgiveness

■ TUES 16 OCT, 11:25-12:15

DR CHRIS BUDD, MATHEMATICIAN

“Mathematics and The Modern World: A Life in Numbers”

Dr Chris Budd is Professor of Applied Mathematics at The University of Bath and a Gresham Professor of Geometry. This talk will look at maths and everyday life.

■ TUES 13 NOV, 11:25-12:15

TOM YENDALL, ARTIST

“Artists Talk with a Difference: Tom's Experience as a Mouth and Foot Painter”

Artist Tom Yendall is a talented mouth and foot painter who was born without arms. Hear about his experiences as an artist and advocate for art and disability.

■ TUES 27 NOV, 11:25-12:15

JAMIE BARTLETT, AUTHOR

“The Dark Net: Inside the Digital Underworld”

Beyond the familiar world of Google lurks a vast hidden network of secret communities, websites and cultures. Technology specialist Jamie Bartlett will take you there.

Students, parents and staff welcome. Contact sheilah@kingalfred.org.uk to reserve a seat. All lectures take place in the Phoenix Theatre unless otherwise noted.

