Caleb asked if the minutes were an accurate record of our last meeting, all the children agreed and the minutes were signed

Update from the chairs on Red Nose Day planning- 15th March 2019.

- Mrs Allison agreed to everything we planned.
- We're going to wear our pyjamas and have crazy hair.
- We must bring in a gold coin. (2 or 1 pound coins).
- Luke and Caleb have written a letter that will be sent out to everyone so that they know what our plans are.
- Red noses are on sale. They cost £1.25. Any change will go to Comic Relief.
- Luke ,Caleb, Maddie, Polly, Ruby, Jack, Mabel and Harry will be doing an assembly on Wednesday 13th March to explain to the school what we are raising money for and to remind everyone what to do.

World Book Day

- Is on the 7th of March.
- Dress up as any book character.
- Costume parade on the field. Everyone gets together on Thursday.
- School council will judge which costume wins.

National Support School designated by

National College for Teaching & Leadership

- Pheobe said that there should be 7 prizes for every year group. Luke argues that its two prizes. We decided as a school countil that there will be 3 prizes.
- Harry said we should have DEAR reading twice a day. A vote happened and everyone agreed.
- Bring your own books. Try to bring the book that shows your character.

Any Other Business:

- Caleb: Trim trail is in progress.
- Isabel: some children in Year 4 want to get changed in different rooms.
- Bryn: The infants want to move one of the benches so they can sit on it. Teddy wanted to leave the bench there so that parents can sit there at hometime. We had a vote with 16 people agreeing to move the bench. Caleb and Luke will talk to Mrs Allison about it.
- Mr Aka wants to start up the lucky plates again. What food would the lucky plate winners get? Please ask your classes and send their ideas to Mr Aka.
