Compagnie Animotion presents
The Musicians of Bremen

Mon 22 Oct 2pm and 4.30pm, £10 (£8 under 16s) Family and Friends (4 people) £32

An adaptation of the classic tale from The Grimm Brothers. Four animals are put out to pasture when they are too old. Follow the adventures of a donkey, cat, cockerel and dog as they discover extraordinary friendships. A show about differences and showing we are never too old to live our dreams. With puppetry, movement and trapeze, all accompanied by live music. Age guidance 3 – 7 years.

A highly visual show and non-verbal work for young and hearing impaired audiences.

The Fir Tree

by Tove Jansson

From Tales in Moominvalley

Tues 20 Nov – Sun 30 Dec. Times vary.

£13.50 (£11.50 under 16's), £46 Family and Friend (4 people), £9.75 Schools

The Moomin family was hibernating in the drawing room as they were wont to do. They had been sleeping for a few months already and were going to keep it up until spring... Now all at once a cold draught disturbed Moomintroll's dreams. And someone was pulling at his quilt and shouting that he was tired and Christmas was coming.

Featuring live puppetry and music, The Fir Tree is an adventure set in the idyllic and peaceful Moominvalley. It is a gloriously unselfish take on Christmas.

Suitable for all audiences from 3 years and upwards.

Presented by Norden Farm, The Ding Foundation, Bernadette Russell and Steve Tiplady.

Pre-show Touch Tours are available for children with SEND and sensory impairments. Contact Box Office for more details.
