

Parent Toolkit

Free autism training from The Autism Group

Misbehaving or misunderstood?

We look at the effect of communication difficulties for those on the spectrum and how tried and tested strategies can have a positive impact on challenging behaviour.

Suitable for parents and carers of children of primary or secondary school age.

WHEN?

Wednesday January 9th 2019
10 am to 12 noon

WHERE?

Bracknell Open Learning Centre
Rectory Lane
Bracknell RG12 7GR

- † Suitable for anyone living or caring for someone with autism, whether newly diagnosed, facing new life stage challenges or simply wanting to refresh their knowledge and understanding.
- † A 2 hour session packed with information and ideas to better equip carers in responding to the needs of those on the spectrum.
- † Friendly, interactive style delivered by qualified autism trainers who can also share their own experience as parents of people on the spectrum.

To book a place contact

Tricia Kempton at tricia@theautismgroup.org.uk

Call or text 07423 636339

www.theautismgroup.org.uk

facebook.com/theautismgroup

Parents say...

"Trainers so knowledgeable and friendly - thank you"

"An amazing service"

"Help at last - thank you!"

Charity registration 1166787

PLEASE BOOK IN ADVANCE AS PLACES ARE LIMITED!