MILLBROOK PARK
CHURCH OF ENGLAND PRIMARY SCHOOL

Monday 25th September 2017

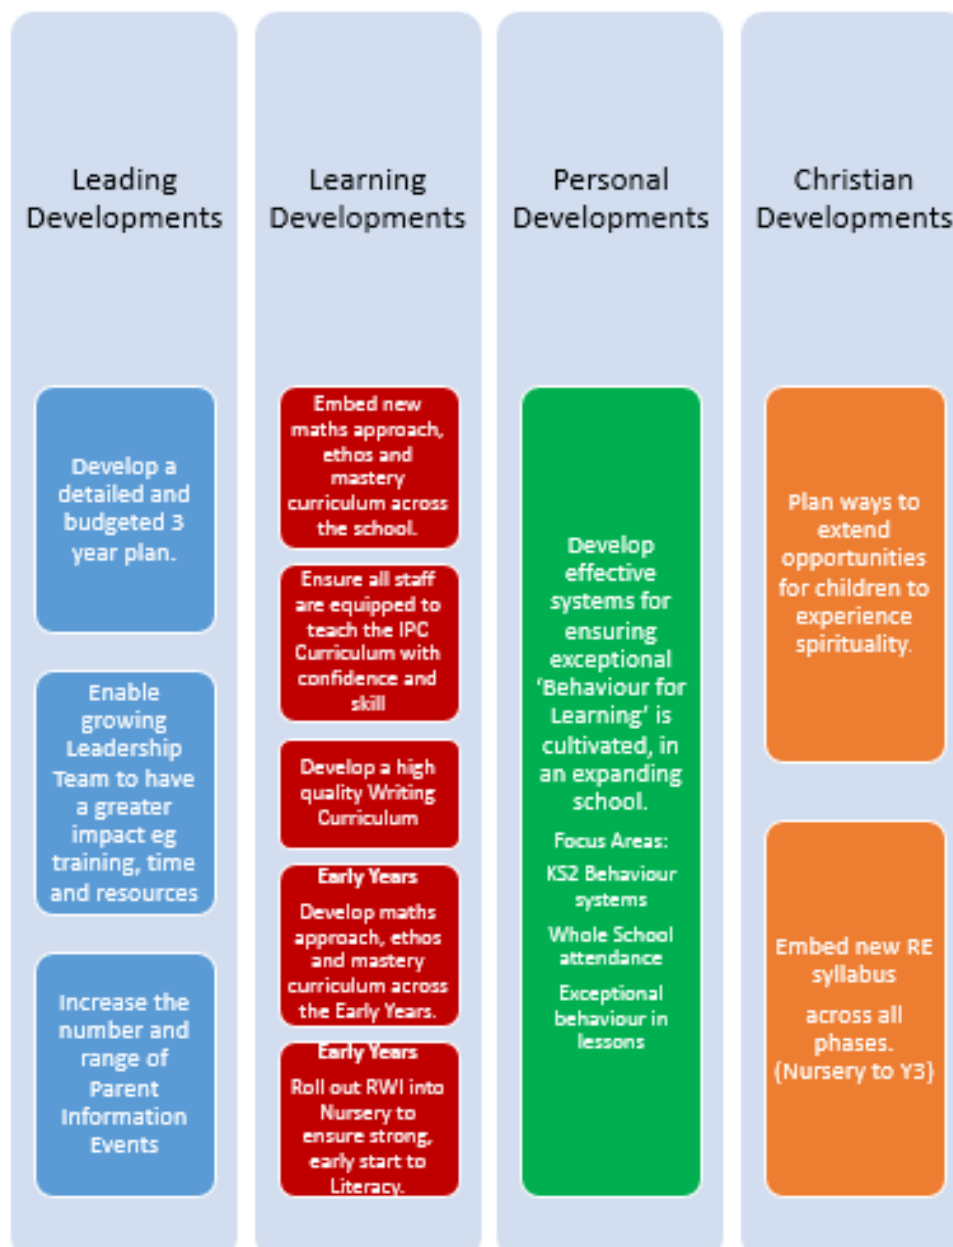

Dear Families,

Each year, the school and governors identify particular areas which it prioritises. Reviews of the previous year, both internal and external inform the decision making, as well as considering what the next steps are, for our growing school. These are the areas for 17-18.

Harvest Assembly (approx. 30 mins)

Fri 6th Oct (8:45am or 2:15pm)

Parents of Rec and Y2 children please come to the 8:45am assembly

Parents of Y1 and Y3 children please come to the 2:15pm assembly

Please bring any Harvest donations in on the day of the assembly - Men's socks, pants or shaving stuff are particularly useful for the Homeless Centre we give to.

Birthdays

There are several children who attend Millbrook who have very serious allergies to certain foods, and some of those children are very young. We therefore need to insist that children do not bring in any cakes or party bags or food treats for classmates when they are celebrating a birthday or other event any more. A lovely alternative to mark the day, and make them feel special, is to let your child buy a book which they can write their name and birthday in, to donate to their own class library. They can show the book to the class and let everyone know it was to celebrate their birthday.
