Christmas Post Box

Children can start to post cards to their school friends using the Christmas post-box from Monday 7th December. The box will be outside the school office at the beginning and end of the school day and inside, in the entrance area during the day.

Non Stop Action Football Coaching Club

The children all enjoyed a half hour taster session on Friday with 'Non Stop Action', the football club which is based at our school on Saturday mornings. If your children are interested in going along for a free session, please contact the club to book in. There were information leaflets in your child's bag on Friday 4th December.
