Monday 12th December 2016

Dear Families,

This is the week the children have been looking forward to – dressing-up and presenting their nativity show to you. Each one of them has helped to re-tell this special story and we hope you enjoy sharing it with them. Whilst you are waiting for the show to start, you might like to take a moment to look around the hall. Each class has made a Christmas-themed suspended hoop, as well as wall art and tree decorations. There is also a rather fabulous snow man sitting by the tree which Ala, in Year 2 made from 100 white cups!

The teachers would like to me to pass on their thanks to the group of parents who have been working day and night on the costumes. It is down to them and their hard work that the cats look cool, Gabriel looks angelic, the parrots look pristine, the sheep look sharp.....I could go on. The help with the costumes has been much appreciated.
