Dear Families,

As we approach Easter, the children are learning the story of the cross. They have been making really thoughtful points as they deepen their understanding of the story and have started to draw messages out to guide them in their own lives. There will be a special Easter menu served this Wednesday (23rd) and on the following Wednesday (30th) the children will be hosting an Easter tea party for local elderly residents through a church organisation called 'The Good Neighbour's'. The children will entertain their guests by singing Easter songs, showing their work and chatting to them about school. It will be a lovely way to end the term.

Wish you a blessed Easter.

Yours, Nicola Dudley - Head of School

See attached information sheet for an update on Launchpad for Language in reception.

Keeping Up with Children's Maths

Several parents have now signed up for this short course. It should be very helpful in understanding the way children are taught maths and things you can do to support this.
