Thank you for coming to join in – it was fun doing the run together.

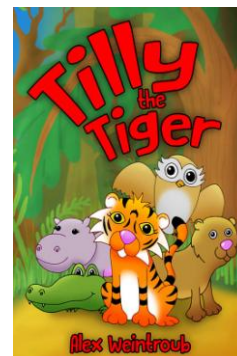

We hope you felt proud of how good your children have become at completing their 1K a day.

If anyone has any photographs of Wednesday's run we would love to have one.

Dear Families,

To encourage the children to keep working hard on their phonics, reading and writing we have arranged for them to meet a real author. Local Mill Hill author (Alex Weintraub) will come and spend a day at Millbrook on 27th May. He will read his new book 'Tilly the Tiger' to the children and answer questions about being an author. The story itself focuses on the importance of friendships and how to treat friends. Hopefully, the children will be inspired to write their own stories after hearing the story and talking to Alex.

Yours, Nicola Dudley - Head of School

Parent Prayer time – 25th May 8:40am

Please put any prayer requests in the gold box in the entrance area. Feel free to ask the prayer group to pray for things you are thankful for, concerned about or would like to pray for strength, support or wisdom with.

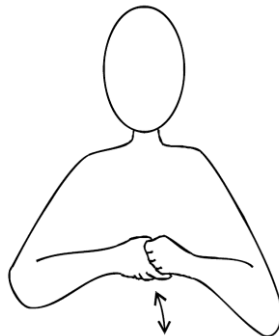

Preparation for Work Course (open to all MBP parents) Barnet and Southgate College

Don't forget to add your name to the list if you would like to join other Millbrook parents on this Thursday morning course. This course will help you update your CV and put together strong job applications. You will also learn how to manage the interview process well. Even if you are not currently looking for work it is a good opportunity to get your CV up to date and to enjoy a sociable time with other Millbrook parents.
