

Science : Animals and all living things

- Recognise that living things can be grouped in a variety of ways
- Explore and use classification keys to help group, identify and name a variety of living things in their local and wider environment
- Recognise that environments can change: this can sometimes pose dangers to living things.
 - Food chains are contained within this topic.

Geography : Mountains & Volcanoes

- Identify the main mountain ranges of the United Kingdom and world mountain ranges.
- Identify and locate the tallest mountain peaks.
- Understand some features of mountain climates & how altitude affects climate and living conditions.
- Explore and develop art skills, based on the Mount Fuji Series, by artist Katsushika Hokusai.

Year 4 Summer Term Topic Web

Linked Reading

Read and Respond Book: Varjak Paw by SF Said

Information books about the Romans and volcanoes, in particular Pompeii.

A range of Poetry

Linked writing:

Newspaper report about the eruption of Mount Vesuvius on Pompeii.

History : Romans

- Become familiar with a timeline, including AD / BC
- Place main events, artefacts and people on a timeline and label with dates.
- Explore aspects of Roman daily life, to include food, clothing, culture and religion.

PSHE / SEAL / SRE

- Health and wellbeing
- Decision making and Living in the wider world
- Identifying and managing feelings

Computing

- E-Safety
- Data Handling- Excell
- Programming – create a maths quiz using Scratch

Religious Education

- Mosques and Islam
- How is Humanism the same as or different to a religion?

Physical Education

- Outdoor Adventure Activities
- Rounders
- Tennis
- Athletics

Design Technology & Art

Mosaics

- Researching symmetrical patterns and Roman inspired designs.
- Planning and designing
- Evaluating, adapting and innovating.

Musical Instruments

- Selecting and collecting relevant materials.
- Combining design with functionality.

Reminders / Celebrations / Projects

- Romans - Museum of London Trip 3rd May 2017
- Key Stage Two Sports Day: Thursday, 25th May 2017
- Walk to School Week: 22nd-26th May 2017