

Our Lady of Peace Catholic School

Fifteenth Week of Ordinary time.

Messengers for Jesus.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark

6

Response- Glory to you , O Lord

- Jesus sent his twelve apostles out in pairs, to preach to the people and to cure the sick. He told them to take no money, no spare clothes and no food. 'If someone makes you welcome, then stay with them until your work is finished,' he said. 'But if people are unfriendly and do not want to listen to your message, then walk away and leave them to themselves.'
- The apostles set off, and did everything as Jesus said. Many people turned back to God after hearing their words, and others were cured in Jesus' name.

Preach and cure the sick

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection

The apostles had a very important job to do, to spread the message that Jesus had sent them with. This was the Good News that Jesus had brought to share with the world, to lead people back to God's love and everlasting life. To love God and to love each other, to be forgiving and kind and to live as Jesus had taught them. God looked after the brave apostles on their mission, taking care of all their needs. Jesus knew that good people would welcome his apostles into their hearts and homes and to care for them.

So how can we be like apostles and share Jesus' message with the people we meet every day?

By making our thoughts, our words and our actions like those of Jesus, by living like he taught us to and to allow the Holy Spirit to work through us, he can reach out and touch the lives of others, bringing them closer to God.

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy!

A vibrant field of tulips and daffodils in shades of red, orange, and yellow, with people visible in the background.

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy

Prayer

Let us close our eyes and speak quietly to Jesus in our hearts.

Lord Jesus, you chose the twelve apostles to bring your message to the world.

You also chose to give each one of us life and to welcome us into the family of God.

Help us to share your message of love and truth with the people we meet each day.

Amen