Dear Parents,

Thank you for getting your children back into school on Wednesday after the two snow days. Please remember, if we have more bad weather, to listen to Free Radio (96.4) and BBC WM (95.6) for updates about the school. You can also look at the front page of Parkfield’s website.

School attendance is currently 97.06% which is excellent. Thank you for your help and support with this. A particular well done to Year 4 who are the best attending year group in the school so far, with an attendance of over 98% and also to classes 5B, 2P and 4O who all have attendances close to 99%! Can anybody beat them?

Next Friday is Big Arts Week at Parkfield. The children will be working hard next week to produce a range of art work for this which we would love to share with you. There will be an art exhibition in the lower and upper halls on Friday 22nd December after school. We look forward to seeing you there.

Mr Williams
Headteacher

Parkfield School is famous for our No Outsiders work and this week we had a visitor to find out about how we teach diversity and difference. Will Young is a famous musician and actor and has appeared on many TV shows including Strictly Come Dancing! He came to interview Mr Moffat about No Outsiders and also to speak to some children about how it helps them. He told us that he felt welcome as soon as he stepped through the front door and he hopes to come back one day.
