CURRICULUM LEADER OF HUMANITIES, RE AND SMSC
(Geography specialism preferred)
TLR 2C
Required from September 2019

The Headteacher and Governors are seeking to appoint an outstanding, highly-skilled and ambitious teacher and dynamic innovative leader who has vision and determination to lead the Humanities department to its next phase of success.

You will be responsible for leading the development of an inspiring Humanities Curriculum, and establishing the highest standards of teaching, learning and assessment to ensure that all students achieve literacy across Humanities. This role offers exciting opportunities for significant career development towards senior leadership. You will play a key part in supporting the development of the College in moving from good to outstanding.

Visited by Ofsted in February 2017, the College maintained its 'Good' status, with the official report stating the following; "New teachers feel very well supported and all staff value the helpful opportunities for professional development in a culture of encouragement."

Visits to this truly unique College, prior to application, are warmly welcomed.

Further details from Hanna Stedman, PA to Headteacher

Closing date: 12 noon on Monday 25 February 2019
Interviews will be held shortly after this date

We do not accept CVs by way of application.
