'Although they had already closed the library, their protest remained vociferous; sirens blared and crowds of people swarmed the streets.'

Well done to the 221 pupils who entered this week's competition. Congratulations to Hannah Livesey of 7HA on her winning entry:

'As sly as a fox, the vulgar celebrity brushed past her fans with jewellery dripping from her thin wrists and drooping ears.'

Numeracy Challenge 34

At the vets, the treatment for Toby costs £25, for Bruno it costs £15 and for Angus it costs £19. How much will treatment for Willow cost?

There were 348 entries last week with a mix of correct answers, and wildly incorrect answers. The short method was to put the teams into pairs, first with last, and so on, and multiply the 16 pairs by the 33 balls they get between them. Well done to Ty Thompson from 7 Beesley, who was the winner from last week.
