Enjoying and Achieving Together

Friday 9th February 2018

Tag rugby

Well done to our Tag rugby team who are through to the next stage of the competition. They have beaten off stiff competition to reach Level 3, including some schools who have amazing track records and are frequently winners of the entire competition. Fantastic job Mr Boyd and team – well done!

Staffing News

Congratulations to Mr Morgan (Year 4) who has a new post which starts after the Easter holiday. We will all really miss Mr Morgan but wish him well in his new school which is nearer to his home. We are currently advertising for a new member of staff to join us in September. In the summer term Mrs Liz Rand, who has worked with us several times over the past few years, will be taking over as class teacher in Hare class.

Australia Bound

On Wednesday we said a fond farewell to Alfie and Spencer Turner who are emigrating to Australia with their family. Although it is sad to say good bye to them, we wish them all every success and are quite jealous that they are heading for the sun while we are still very much in the grip of winter.

Netball Success

Congratulations to the netball team who came third in the junior league.

Well done team members Abi Bradley, Katy Bradley, Anna Barnes, Tilly Weaver, Holly Thomason-Jones and Grace Robinson. A fantastic effort girls!

PE Kit for Cold Weather

We still go out for PE, even if the weather is cold. Please send your children with extra layers for PE – tracksuit top and bottoms. If they only have their shorts and t-shirts, we will have to assume you feel this is adequate clothing for PE. We do not have enough spare clothes to kit everyone out. Thank you.
