

	Term 1	Term 2	Term 3	Term 4	Term 5	Term 6
Topic	Anglo-Saxons	Children through history	China	Treginnis	Vikings	Our World
Literacy	Narrative poems: Beowulf Traditional tales: Anglo-Saxon stories Non-fiction: finding information in a text	Fiction: Street Child by Berlie Doherty - writing own historical fiction Non-fiction: Explanation texts - science link to Evolution	Fiction: Text based in China Non-fiction: Non-Chronological reports Chinese Poetry (Playwriting - Soho Theatre Project)	Fiction: Stories set in a different location Non Fiction: Environmental management plans (geography linked) (Playwriting - Soho Theatre Project)	Non-Fiction: Persuasive writing (Viking hoards) Fiction:	Fiction: Stories set in different countries (?Garbage King) Non-fiction: Formal reports and presentations Performance and plays - Soho Theatre Project
Guided Reading Focus	Understanding character through inference	Historical fiction - inference to understand an historical setting	Settings and story structure	Comprehension and test practice	Comprehension and test practice	Reading for pleasure - experiment with a different genre
Science	Light	Evolution	Earth and space	Revision of KS2 science topics and experiment skills	Revision of KS2 science topics and experiment skills	Experiments with the world around us.
Geography	Geography of UK - changes over time and basic physical geography		China today - location study of different country	Case study of Treginnis (human, physical and environmental management) Map reading skills (link to art)	Political geography of Viking period in Europe.	Countries of the world - study of world and European geography and independent research
History	Britain's settlement by Anglo-Saxons and Scots	British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066 -	An in depth study of The Shang Dynasty of Ancient China		The Viking and Anglo-Saxon struggle for the Kingdom of England
Art	Anglo-Saxon art and culture -	Using art as an historical source -	Writing as art - Calligraphy and Chinese art	Landscape painting - watercolour skills and using maps
D&T			Chinese food - create your own balanced menu		Viking military equipment	Design for change - what do you want to invent to change the world?
Music	Lessons focuses on increasing children's theoretical understanding and awareness of the related dimensions of music, especially pulse, rhythm and pitch, through lots of practical experience. Children will recognise and understand notation, rhythms and rests. They will keep the pulse whilst playing several parts at a time as a class, either by clapping or using instruments.
Computing	Internet safety & Coding (create own basic program)	Internet safety & How the internet works and communication	Internet safety & Searching the internet (search technology)	Internet safety & Coding (use range of variables)	Internet safety & Coding (debug and logical reasoning)	Internet safety & Presenting information effectively (PP, Word, Excel etc)
Spanish	Introducing you. Understanding simple Instructions.	Days of the week Numbers 1-20 & multiples. Introducing yourself	Numbers 10 -100 Time/seasons, nouns and plurals	Numbers 100 -500 Weather Pets.(sing/plurals) Spain/Countries/Maps.	Numbers 500 – 1000 Likes and dislikes. Transport.	Numbers and Mathematics: At the market Music. Positive/Negative conversation. Project: Children's story.
PSHE	New Beginnings	Getting on and Falling Out	Going for Goals	Relationships	Good to be me	Changes
R.E.	Rules & Laws	Festivals of Light	Gifts	Prayer	Holy Places	Holy Books
P.E.	Aerobics & Team Games	Aerobics & Gymnastics	Aerobics & Team Games	Aerobics & Gymnastics	Aerobics & Athletics	Aerobics & Athletics
Independent Research Theme	Culture and Design	People and Place	Great Inventions	Pastimes		Our world