

SCHOOL COUNCIL NEWS

11th March 2016

Actions:

4Hubble to practise parachute games before Easter.

Hold a Class Council before 22nd April.

Rota for parachute sharing to start after Easter.

Bubbles to classes

Good things:

Y6 know that there are 11 Fire Extinguishers in the Gopsall building.

The France trip was really enjoyable: chocolate factory; all the way up the Eiffel Tower and Disneyland. Thank you to Rita and all the staff that made the week-end possible.

50 Y5's went to meet authors Steve Barlow and Steve Skidmore – they were very funny!

The House Championship Events have gone well.

Well done to the Y5 Brass band and the Y6 trio.

Y5 found out that maths is everywhere and fun at the Bot

Sad things:

The FAB Club door is still broken, but Mrs Choudary is dealing with it. The litter posters are still not on the Gopsall fence.

Date of next meeting:

22nd April 2016 (tbc)

Chair: Amy

Other information:

March 11th is Mr Brown's birthday – Happy 60th! Gopsall Hall hosted a massive map of the World and Y2 enjoyed using it to find the Seven Wonders of the World. Cuthbert has helped Y6 FAB Club maintain a tidy equipment cupboard. The outside library books have arrived: Mrs Cooper is preparing and sorting them for after Easter.

1. Y6 have been on their Fire Safety Walk – there are 11 extinguishers in the building

2. 6Aristotle are working in rows across the classroom, 6Socrates are working on instant stop in the classroom on request to support good behaviour for the Drayton Manor trip.

3. 4Hubble have not yet shared the parachute. The Y4 rota will be in classes; the Y3 rota will be in houses.

4. Successes to report:

The France trip was really enjoyable: they went to a chocolate factory where they explained how they made chocolate from cacao beans - too delicious! They went to the Eiffel Tower in Paris up lots of stairs. They went to Disneyland on the last day - it was amazing! Thank you to Rita and all the staff who gave up their time for this wonderful week- end.

50 people from Y5 went to meet authors Steve Barlow and Steve Skidmore and Muhammad Ali had to dress up as Captain Scoreboard with a cape and underpants outside out his trousers! The authors were very funny! The water jokes were also very funny.

The whole school has done their House Championship Events.

Well done to the Y5's who played in the Brass Band. Well done to the 3 Y6's who also played a trio.

Y5 went on a maths trip to the Botanic Gardens - they found out that maths is everywhere and is great fun.

Y6 went to a fantastic trip to the Warning Zone: Pat, a really great guy, took them on an adventure to help everyone to understand how to keep themselves safe. Safety through fun!

30 specially selected Y5's are doing a dance performance over the next week Today is Mr Brown's 60th Birthday - happy birthday.

Thank you to Y6 FAB Club for tidying up the Y6 equipment - Cuthbert has been especially helpful.

We dressed up as characters from our favourite books for World Book Day. Gopsall Hall hosted a giant map for Y2 to learn about the Seven Wonders of the World

Mr Hiley pretended to be the 'Highwayman' so that the children could act as detectives.

5. Anything else:

PE cupboard door is still broken but Mrs Choudary is working on it.

The litter posters are not on the fence outside the Gopsall building.

The books for the outside libraries have arrived! Mrs Cooper needs to sort them and put the boxes for after Easter. Look forward to reading outside!

6. Date of next meeting: 1pm on Friday 22nd April (TBC) in Mr Cheetham's Room in the Gopsall Building

7. The next chairman will be: Saihaanul
