

SCHOOL COUNCIL NEWS

9th March 2017

Good things:

2Sh, 5N, 5G, 6E and 6S have chosen their 3 best A5 flyers to encourage Active Kids Voucher collection.

Jane Clarke (author) held special assemblies to reward children who wrote the best poems in her workshops.

World Book Day was great fun – lots of good costumes: Y2 had an 'Alice in Wonderland' theme We've just enjoyed Pancake Day and smiled for School Photo Day.

The Y4/5/6 children (and some children from Shenton) who went to France last week-end had a wet but wonderful time in Paris and Disneyland.

5G have been great in their arithmetic tests.

Y5 have been reading 20 titles for Best Book Day:

they had to choose the best 5: 'Ghost Prison';

'Electric Girl'; 'Dave Pigeon'; 'Evil Emperor

Penguin' and 'Edge of Extinction'

Mr Cheetham's wife has had a baby boy, Jack, and Mr Cheetham is having 2 weeks paternity leave.

Y6 are learning to play the ukelele.

Actions:

Y4 to complete and send their letter to LCC.

F2/Y1/2St/Y3/Y4/

5daV to design A5

flyers to promote collecting Active Kids

Vouchers by 31st

March

Y6 to write up their letter in best, find the postcode and send it.

Tabitha/Amina to chair: Tabitha

Other information:

Y5 have designed a poster for their fence to encourage Sainsbury's Active Kids voucher collection.

Gopsall children are going to be careful when they kick the ball to keep it in the playground.

So that there are enough portions for vegetarian children, Halal children are not allowed to decide to be vegetarian at meal times.

Y5 packed lunch children are not allowed to get a school dinner dessert.

5N are going to ask Mr Hiley for a rota change so that they can have more than one turn a week in the back playground.

Y5 are doing a 'police investigation' to discover who killed the (fake) dead body that they found in Gopsall hall!

Sad things:

Y5 are asking Y6 children not to hide the balls in the shelter as Y5 would like to use them when it is their turn outside.

Mr Ali has broken his ankle so girls' football club is suspended. Mr Marsh has also hurt his foot playing football.

Date of next meeting:

Tuesday 21st March 2017

School Council meeting:

Class Councillors present: Fatima, Medina, Iyed, Rihanna, Tamara, Tehmina, Bhargav, Asjad, Ameena, Alisha, Nabil, Bilal, Zainab, Devonte, Rania, Sajidah, Ayan, Hammad, Farida, Isa, Annabella

Absent: no absences

Chairman: Tabitha

1. We welcomed Tamara (Y5) and Nabil (Y4) to the School Council.

Y4's letter to Leicester City Council about a cigarette bin outside school is in progress.

5G and 5dV have handed in their school dinner surveys to Mrs Cooper: 5N and Y6 still to complete 2Sh, Y5N/G (did theirs on A4) and 6C/6S have designed their A5 flyers to promote collecting Active Kids vouchers from Sainsbury's: they have chosen their 3 best ones.

Y5/6 have done a poster about Active Kids for their fence: KBu to laminate and return to Gopsall for putting on the fence

Y6 have written to Sainsbury's to say that we are collecting Active Kids vouchers.

They will write it up in best and get the postcode of Sainsbury's local, then send it.

Tehmina and Ameena reported that they haven't contacted Mr Marsh yet

We think that Gopsall children need to be careful to keep the ball in the playground.

2. Successes to report:

Y2's poem assembly was a success (Jane Clarke): World Book Day was a success
Y2 had an Alice in Wonderland theme: Y2 won against Green Lane, 7-2, - it was an exciting match because they were losing 1-2 at half-time.

4H enjoyed Pancake Day and smiled for School Photo Day

5DaV: The children who went to France at the week-end had an exciting if rather wet time in Paris and Disneyland

5G have been great in their arithmetic tests

Best Book Day : Year 5 have been reading 20 titles and voted on their 5 favourite titles: Ghost Prison; Electric Girl; Dave Pigeon; Evil Emperor Penguin; Edge of Extinction

6C: Mr Cheetham has a baby boy (2 weeks off): Y6 have started to play the ukulele

Miss Cook taught Y6 p.e.

3. Anything else:

DaV: Halal children are not allowed to decide to be vegetarian so that there are enough vegetarian dinners

5G: packed lunch in Y5 are not allowed to take a school dinner desserts under any circumstances: Y5 are asking Y6 not to hide the balls in the shelter and prevent Y5 from using them when it is their turn for break.

Mr Ali has broken his foot so girls' football is suspended; Mr Marsh has hurt his foot playing football.

5DaV are asking for a rota change for the back playground so that they have more than one turn (Mr Hiley)
