Classics, History, and Modern and Medieval Languages Subject Taster Day

Saturday 2nd March, 11.30-16.00, Clare College, Cambridge

Clare College is pleased to announce a 'Subject Taster Day' for Year 12 students interested in learning more about the Classics, History and Modern and Medieval Languages courses on offer at the University of Cambridge. Any teachers who would like to attend are also very welcome.

The Subject Taster Day will include the opportunity for students to attend sample lectures such that they will be able to gain an insight into what it is like to study History, Classics or MML, or a selection of these, at the University of Cambridge.

In addition to these sample lectures, attendees will find out about applying to Cambridge and have an opportunity to take part in a question and answer session with staff and students. A buffet lunch will be provided, during which students can engage in conversations with Fellows and Directors of Studies of the College. Participants will have the opportunity to explore the College with current undergraduates, who will be able to share their experiences of life as a student here at Clare College.

Subject Taster Lectures will be delivered by the following speakers:

Dr Charlie Weiss

College Lecturer in Classics

Dr Nick Evans

Research Fellow in History

Lydia Collings

Subject Coordinator and Teacher, University Language Centre

The event will run from 11.30-16.00 in Old Court, Clare College. A buffet lunch and refreshments will be provided. If you would like to attend, please register your interest by filling in the following form by no later than Monday 25th February:
