Curriculum Content	Assessment	What homework will they have?
What will my child be studying this term? Coastal Landscapes <ul style="list-style-type: none">• How do coasts work as systems?• What physical factors influence coasts?• What are the differences between high and low energy coastlines?• How can human activity affect coasts? Hazardous Earth <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What are the theories of continental drift?• What happens at plate boundaries?• What are volcanic landscapes and hazards like?• How do earthquakes generate distinctive hazards?• What is it like living in tectonically active locations? How do people cope with tectonic hazards?	Students will complete exam style questions each half term for each teacher.	Students should expect to spend as much time completing Geography work outside the classroom as they do in lessons. Specific tasks will be set but students should be using online and ISC resources to read around subject matter covered in class.
What can I do to help my child? Encourage students to use the dynamic learning website (they have log-in details) to carry out independent research. This is an online archive of an A-level Geography magazine. Make sure students watch the news/read a newspaper regularly to keep up to date with geographical events.
Additional resources and details of core texts used: We follow the OCR A-level course and recommend that all students have the course textbook at home (ISBN: 978-1-4718-5870-3) Useful websites: http://coolgeography.co.uk/ (A-level section) http://thebritishgeographer.weebly.com/ http://www.s-cool.co.uk/a-level/geography We also subscribe to the Geography Review Archive. Students will be provided with log-in details in September.
Teaching group arrangements: All students in Geography are taught in mixed ability groups.
Where can I get more advice? Mrs C Stacey (Curriculum Leader) – cstacey@stratfordschool.co.uk. Please include the name of your child's teacher so the message can be forwarded appropriately.
