Play, learn, grow together

Dear Parents/Carers,
Wow...what a term and it's gone so fast! So much has happened... Doris and Dave the dragons have now moved to the library and are keeping a watchful eye on the books. We've had a very successful Parents Workshop. Thank you to Mrs Ravic and Mrs Harmer for putting these together. We are now planning more to come in the summer term!! This week we are celebrating Autism Awareness. Mrs Bartram ran some fab workshops earlier in the week. Now we are currently all wearing pjs and silly socks and we have raised £32 with our 'How many sweets in the jar?'. You can still have a go if you want to...get down to the office today! Our 'Come & Plant' session went very well. Apologies to parents that we couldn't take toddlers too but we will review this for the next 'Come & Play' session in the summer term, watch this space! We hope you all fabulous Easter break, keep safe and we will see Monday 16th April.

Happy Holidays Everyone!!
