Dear Families

Religious Studies GCSE Independent Study Booklet

During RS lessons this week, all students will receive an independent study booklet to complete at home, as part of their GCSE Religious Studies course. This is the second and final study booklet given in order to assist students with covering the content required for the Religious Studies course. It is imperative that they complete the booklet.

The deadline for completion and submission is the first week back after the Easter holiday from Monday 16 April. Their RS teacher will collect the booklets and mark them and will provide feedback on the work completed.

Should your child have any difficulties in completing this booklet, they should see their Religious Studies teacher in the first instance. There will also be a drop in session on Tuesdays after school in Room 302, should they wish to complete the booklet with a member of staff or if they have any questions. In the event that they lose their booklet, an electronic copy is available on Firefly in the Religious Studies section under Year 11.

In order to support students further, there are revision materials and example exam questions on Firefly.

Thank you in advance for your support. If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me via the main school email info@teddingtonschool.org

Yours faithfully

Mrs N Green
