Update – School Funding Issues

I wanted to contact you to provide an update on current issues relating to school funding.

Sadly, I have to confirm that despite intense lobbying of the Government and Department for Education, matters remain extremely challenging. In short, schools are still not being provided with adequate funding and resource to deliver the level of provision and support that is expected and that our families and children deserve.

Current Concerns

- Since 2010 school budgets have been reduced in real terms by 8% and by 20% at post-16
- Class sizes are rising and the curricular offer is being restricted
- Increasingly, schools are being asked to support with children's emotional health and wellbeing. Frequently, we do not have adequate resource to meet a growing need.
- Often, the most vulnerable students in our schools – those from disadvantaged backgrounds or those with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) – are bearing the brunt of cuts and schools are struggling to provide the levels of support that they are entitled to.

These issues are not simply affecting a few schools. They are common features across our education system up and down the country. Levels of concern are so widespread amongst headteachers that we are all working together with a united voice.

As such, we have written to the Secretary of State for Education on three separate occasions since September 2018. We are dismayed that he has chosen to ignore our communications and repeated requests to meet. On 13 December 2018, we were informed by a junior civil servant that “I am afraid that, on this occasion, the Secretary of State and the Minister of State must decline your offer to meet. I hope you will understand that their time is heavily pressurised and their diaries need to be prioritised according to ministerial, Parliamentary and constituency business.”

Given the seriousness of the current school funding crisis and the impact upon schools, children and families, head teacher colleagues and I, believe that this approach is entirely ill-judged.

Update – School Funding Issues

On 14 January 2019, we wrote again to the Secretary of State for Education asking that he reconsider meeting with representative head teachers. Six weeks later, this request was declined once more: “As I’m sure you will appreciate, both their diaries are very full and they are unable to accept your kind offer at this time.” Thousands of head teachers simply do not understand what issues could be seen as more important than the ones we are raising on behalf of schools, children and families.

In September 2018, over 2000 headteachers campaigned at Westminster in order to underline the seriousness of the current situation. This action was unprecedented.

The ‘Worth Less?’ campaign group now comprises 64 Local Authorities and Boroughs, covering thousands of schools and millions of families. This gives a clear indication of the levels of concern felt by reasonable and moderate head teachers in England.

We continue to recognise that there is not a ‘bottomless pit’ of money and also acknowledge that many local MPs from across the political spectrum are taking a supportive approach. We must make clear, however, that the current response from the Department for Education is inadequate.

Why we need to meet

Head teachers want to contribute constructively to overcome current funding issues.

Head teachers want to reflect the serious concerns expressed by families regarding inadequate levels of resource and provision especially for our most vulnerable students.

Head teachers want to ensure that schools receive a much better deal when future Government spending plans – the Comprehensive Spending Review - are drawn up over the next few months.

Head teachers want to indicate serious and rising concerns relating to the wider pastoral and social care that schools are expected, by default, to provide against a background of severe cuts to Local Authority provision.

Head teacher colleagues and I, feel fortunate that we have been so strongly supported by parents and carers as we campaign for a much improved level of funding for our schools and pupils. We urge you to continue to make representations to your local MP and to the Department for Education and wider Government to ensure that matters improve.

We will continue to inform you of the facts and to campaign vigorously over coming weeks and months. A positive starting point should come from the Secretary of State for Education in the form of an urgent meeting.

Yours sincerely

I want to draw your attention to the wonderful work that the parent volunteers have been doing in our library. The library is a place for quiet work and reflection - and an opportunity to read. These volunteers have transformed the space back into a working environment for students that wish to use it in this capacity. Without our daily volunteers we would not be able to use the library at all.

Please remember that we have an out of sight policy for mobile phones at school. These are not to be seen or used in the building or outside in the playground. Some students ring their parents while in school to give them a message - even during lessons when they should be focusing on learning. Please discuss this with your child and remind them that they must go to Student Services to contact home during the school day.

Is anyone in your family currently in their second year of university and looking for a paid internship? Paid Education Internships for second year undergraduates are available with the Richmond Teaching School Alliance (of which Teddington School is part of). RTCP with OPTA has secured funding to run a paid internship for second year undergraduates in summer 2019. The vast majority of the grant is to pay the interns. It will pay for 16 places. I started teaching at Teddington School in September 2018, as Head of History. I have been studying history since developing a strong interest at the age of 12 years old. I studied history at Winchester University as both an Undergraduate and at Master's level. I love all periods and themes of history but specialise in the Early Modern period including the Reformation and French Revolution, but love the modern periods like the Cold War just as much. I love history because of all the stories some of which are unbelievable but are true and how history is so relevant to everything that's happening in the world around us. I have always wanted to be a teacher, so I feel so lucky that everyday I get to do what I enjoy. I love teaching at Teddington because everyone is so supportive and friendly and the school has a great atmosphere. I really look forward to counting off a lot of years here as Head of History.

A Letter to Students

Our first question to you is:

How many students here today are regular visitors to their local public library?

Or, have any of you visited your public library in the last year? The closest libraries are Teddington Library on Waldegrave Road, and Hampton Wick Library in Bennet Close.

If you have, you will know that in a library it is not acceptable to sit and chat with friends, to eat or drink or to run around the bookshelves. Libraries are quiet spaces for reading and study. At most you will hear Librarians speaking quietly at the help desk and the clicking of keys on the pcs.

We know that due to the position of the library in the heart of our school and its design without walls, a ceiling or doors, it is a challenge to make it a really quiet space. This does not mean that we should not observe library rules and customs.

Our next question is:

How many of you have a book in your bag which you have started reading, or which you are in the middle of reading?

Congratulations. You are always welcome to come to the library to read your books at break and at lunchtime.

However, it is NOT acceptable to:

- Grab a book randomly from the shelves and pretend to read it whilst chatting with friends, only to abandon it 5 minutes later, leaving the book on the table, or pushed back into a random shelf.

- To play games on the PCs, to be on your phone, to bring food or drink into the library or to otherwise misbehave. We WILL ask you to leave.

IF we ask you to leave, please don't argue with us! It is disrespectful, it is time wasting, and it will not change our decision. Act with good grace, leave quietly and learn from your mistakes.

PLEASE don't oblige us to fetch a member of staff to deal with the situation you have caused. There may be consequences! Behaviour points, detentions or time in the referral room.

Your librarians are all book lovers and avid readers. We remember spending our break and lunchtimes in our own school libraries, and we remember the authors we discovered, and the books we read then and still love.

We want Teddington students to enjoy using their library, and to encourage a lifelong habit of reading and study. The National Literacy Trust has published a large scale report which shows that children who love reading have the highest levels of mental well being and academic success.

We are more than happy to recommend books and authors to you, based on books you may have enjoyed in the past, or your interests. We have been working really hard to get the database up and running so that we can now start issuing and lending books again.

"We look forward to welcoming more readers to the library in future."

Yours sincerely,

The Library Team 2019

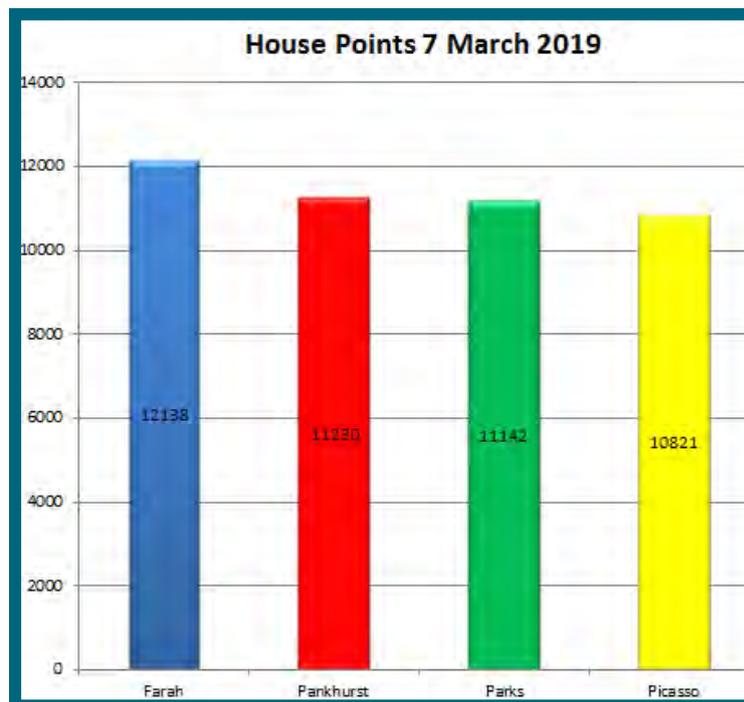

This week in School

Johanna, Lydia and Jess from Year 8 organised an impromptu girls vs. boys football match at lunchtime on Tuesday as part of our International Women's Day celebrations. It was positive to see community cohesion linked to a topic from their assembly!

31 students from years 7 to 13 competed in the TCS Oxford Computing Challenge this week. The TCS Oxford Computing Challenge is an invitation event which aims to encourage students who have achieved a top 10% score in the UK Bebras Challenge to develop their skills further and produce programmed solutions to computational thinking problems. These events are held online, in schools and are supervised by teachers, in this case Mr Upstone. The participants' solutions are auto-marked and the top 20 students in each age group will progress to a second round

Lost your lunch card? Next week at Teddington School will have a lunch card amnesty. Replacements cards will be available for just £1 Monday - Friday only! Students should bring the correct money to Student Services at morning break.

News from the Sixth Form

Seven students departed for New York on Wednesday to attend the United Nations Conference.

Ella Oakley, Joseph Imber, Alicia Tabor, Max Saunders, Holly Armstrong, Tom Greenwood and Sam Burke have been taking part in the UN conference regarding water use globally. When they return they will be organising their own conference for Year 10 and 11 students to take part in.

They stayed in the heart of New York, near Madison Square Gardens. After attending the conference for two days with students from schools from all around the world including Bermuda, Madrid, and Shanghai, the students had the opportunity to explore the city including MOMA, the Rockefeller Centre and Central Park.

The students were accompanied by both Ms Metcalfe and Ms Thomas. You can follow the group on Instagram Teddington 6F.

Discovery: The Unseen Obvious Lecture

Join Dr Hui for an evening at Teddington School to find your inner scientist. Using his own discoveries and those of others, he will show that anyone is able to make discoveries, as long as they have curiosity, passion and perseverance. Dr Hui will explore the process of discovering things, using practical demonstrations from subjects as diverse as killer whales and great white sharks; heart anatomy, paper aeroplanes, art, and even magic.

You will have the opportunity to feel what it is like to make your own discoveries: it's fun to find things out!
