Parental Consent Information:

I, the Parent/Guardian of the above-mentioned participant, will inform Aim High Expeditions of changes to any of the above stated information. In the event of illness or injury, I give permission for emergency medical treatment to be administered where considered necessary by a nominated and qualified first aider, or by suitably qualified medical practitioners. In the event that the above-mentioned persons cannot be contacted, I authorise a qualified medical practitioner to provide emergency treatment or medication to my Son/Daughter/Ward should it be necessary.

Aim High Expeditions is committed to ensuring that any information gathered in relation to our outdoor education activities meets the specific requirements as set out in the Data Protection Act 1998. Aim High Expeditions will store the above information on their database for a maximum of 12 months.

Aim High Expeditions regularly photograph and document their expeditions to give their participants and opportunity to look back at their experiences. These photographs are occasionally used for marketing purposes, either on publicity material, on our website or stored on our online gallery. If you are not happy for your Son/Daughter/Ward to be photographed in this manner then please inform us.

Aim High Expeditions have very strict risk management and operating procedures in place and do everything possible to reduce the level of risk to all participants. Parents/Guardians must be aware and accept that despite these safety measures outdoor activities carry an inherent level of risk to the individual that may lead to personal injury and in extreme circumstances death.

Aim High Expeditions reserves the right to alter the programme without notice to the Parent/Guardian where necessary due to unforeseen circumstances. Parents/Guardians should be aware that they are responsible for the replacement costs of any Aim High kit and equipment or clothing that is lost or damaged whilst in the possession of their Son/Daughter howsoever caused.

Participants who fail to attend part or all of the booked programme for any reason will not be issued with a refund. As such we suggest that Parents/Guardians should take out travel insurance to cover such occurrences as Aim High will not be held liable for any associated losses.

I confirm that I have read the all the above information, all details are correct to the best of my knowledge and I give consent for my child to participate in all activities.
