Dear Families

South London Young Coaches Academy

Following previous successful editions of South London Young Coaches Academy we are pleased to offer your daughter a chance to get involved in this exciting project. This is a great opportunity for any mature, pro-active and committed girls aged 14-17 who are interested in getting involved or pursuing their career in coaching - with or without previous coaching experience. The project will give students an opportunity to attend two training sessions leading to their involvement in delivering practical activities in a school setting as well as a Girls For The Girls Festival, which I will assist with.

Additionally, three girls will be offered a chance to participate in the Girls Active Coaches Camp held between Friday 5 and Sunday 7 April 2019 at Loughborough University.

Recruitment process is based on students' individual on-line applications. The link to apply is in the attached information.

Applications are now open the deadline for an application is Friday 25 January 2019.

Please feel free to contact me directly if you have any additional questions.

Yours faithfully
