

School Council Members

This week in class, the children have been voting on who they wish to represent their class in the school council. The school council's job is very important. It's main aim is to share the children's ideas, interests and concerns with the teachers. As we have extended the building, the school council representatives had the opportunity to visit the new build today to see the overall project before the handover on Monday.

Girls Football Competition

On Tuesday 9th October, Tollgate School entered a girl's football competition for years 5/6, which took place at West Ham United Foundation. Altogether there were twenty-six schools that participated in this event. We played some exciting football but we were unable to qualify stage. This was the first time the girls had played together as a team and they showed outstanding promise for the future. The girls behaved brilliantly and were a credit to the school.

Well done: Mazeda, Gabriela, Georgia, Damisola, Kiyanna, Mariella, Lacey, Hafsa, Aiza, Bintou, Isabella and Rani.
