

Monday 10 February 2014

Dear Parents and Guardians

Planned tube strike - Wednesday 12 and Thursday 13 February

I am writing to you all to inform you of the following information in the event of a tube strike on Wednesday 12 and Thursday 13 February next week.

Due to the challenges presented to our staff, most of whom travel in by London underground we will be making the following changes to the Academy day:

Foundation and Level 1

On both days the Academy will begin at 9.30am and finish at 3.40pm. There will be no self-directed learning (usually 3.30pm-4.30pm).

Level 3

Wednesday 12 February

The academy will be open as normal from 10.00am. The Academy day will finish at 4.30pm. There will be no self-directed learning on those days.

Thursday 13 February

The Academy will be open as normal from 10.00am. The Academy day will finish at 4.30pm.

The UCL guest lecture will continue as scheduled between 4.30pm and 5.30pm, all students expected to attend must do so.

Please note if the strike action is cancelled the Academy day will be as normal for all students.

This information will also be available on the Academy website.

Kind regards

Mr R Street
Vice-Principal