

Dear Parents

Miss Brewer and her class presented the first class assembly of 2014 last Friday. They introduced us to their new topic 'Habitats' and took us on a journey to the different tundra around the world. A really interesting assembly, well done 4B

Help for Hedgehogs Campaign

Nature Clubs assembly went well on Wednesday and they had to order another box of badges as they were so popular, at £1 each.

Chess Match

Our school has some strong chess players. This time it was Omar E, Jack R, Sean C and Ethan T who played really well in some challenging games against Knowle last Friday. One of Omar's games lasted 40 minutes. Well done to you all!

Kim Strong

For many years Kim has been the backbone of PTA swimming lessons. She has made the difficult decision to give up this role to enable her to have more 'Family Time'. She will finish at the end of January but the good news is that she will continue to work during school time delivering her excellent class swimming lessons.

Young Voices

Thank you for all your positive comments about this event, it makes all the effort worthwhile.

Aston Villa with Year 2

Lisa Sharred representing Aston Villa spent the whole morning last Friday teaching Year 2 ball skills. They thoroughly enjoyed it. The good news is that she is coming again to work with another year group.

Parking

Please remember that there are parking restrictions outside school. Unfortunately parents are regularly parking illegally for example on the zigzag lines. It is important that access to school is kept clear at all times.

Next PTA Meeting

The next meeting will be held in the 'Brickies' near the station on Tuesday 28th January at 7:30. Everyone is welcome, so please come along.

Kirkland Rowell

Please remember to complete your questionnaire and return it to school as soon as possible. Your responses are valued and are acted upon. Staff and pupils are included in this process to enable us to get a really good understanding of stakeholder views.

Thanking you for your continued support.
